The Twice-a-Week Sun is an eight-page, forty-column paper, published every Monday and Thursday, and contains all the news of the week, local, State and general, and will be mailed, postage free, to any part of the United States or Canada, for $1.00 a year—in advance.

All advertising bills become due after first appearance of advertisement, unless otherwise stipulated in contract. Parties not known to us will be required to pay for advertising in advance. Address, THE DAILY SUN, GAINESVILLE, FLA.

Norway is as eager to get a King as Russia is to get rid of one.

Chicago has instituted a crusade against the use of the tooth pick. Probably Chicago does not eat its own beef.

All the world will rejoice at the liberation of Finland. Never was a nobler people enslaved and held by more ignorant and sordid masters.

It is said that the colored ladies of Baltimore have struck in the families of all Democrats because the men voted for the disfranchising amendment.

If the people of the South and West keep on drawing from the reserve fund the East will soon go broke. Call money at 25 per cent is something remarkable.

The Southern conference on quarantine and immigration at Chattanooga has decided to ask Federal control of quarantine forces and will ask Congress to pass legislation.

A St. Louis woman's club has announced that woman cannot love man and art at the same time, but every one knows it is perfectly possible for a woman who paints to still love some man.

The New York Sun calls M. Witte "the most monumental liar that ever came out of the East." By this geographical limiting his origin the Sun still leaves the world's record with New York.

Boston, which has heretofore been the wool center of the country for many years, has now met a warm rival in Chicago. The yearly increase in Chicago's wool market for the past two years has been over a million and a half pounds.

Sir Frederick Treves in an address before the Philosophical Society in London said that disease is benevolent and not malignant except in a few cases. This will not make people any slower to send for the doctor though when a disease manifests itself.

Information has been received at Washington indicating the existence of an organization of steamship companies and others designed to guarantee immigrants to the United States against loss of passage money, etc., in the event that after crossing the ocean they are turned back on account of inability to comply with immigration requirements.

Directors of the Enterprise National Bank of Allegheny, Pa., have filed petitions in the common pleas court asking that the judgments taken by the treasurer, W. L. Matheus, against them, be opened on the ground that the State having at various times checked out or withdrawn the deposits actually bonded, the conditions of the bond were fully met and complied with and therefore the directors cannot be held liable. The court granted a rule on the plaintiff to show cause why the judgment should not be opened. In effect, if the directors' contentions be sustained, the State would lose all money deposited at the time of the bank's failure.

HOLD YOUR COTTON.

Again the cotton statistics of the Federal Department of Agriculture have held their influence on the selling price of cotton, this time the statistics being those of the ginners, says The Atlanta Constitution. The effect was to slightly depress the cotton market, and the bears are again hoping against hope.

Let no Southern cotton grower allow himself to be stampeded into rushing his bales to market by any of the "bear" arguments sent out by speculators. As a matter of fact, and a fact never better known in the cotton belt, this season's cotton crop was "all in" remarkably early, and its shortness was quickly apparent. Of course a crop harvested so early is ginned early, and its shortness was quickly apparent. The middle of November sees the picking practically over, and it will surprise the men on the ground who know actual conditions if the ten-million-bale mark is reached. That would indeed seem to be a maximum figure.

The manufacturing world will take every bale of this year's American cotton crop at its true value based on the law of supply and demand. There is no need for the planter to sell his cotton for less, if he is prepared to hold awhile. Right at this juncture is a good time to "stand pat" for a higher price than the market is affording at present. The inevitable tendency of the fleecy staple is upward. It is bound to advance. The farmer who can possibly hold and does not is sacrificing good, hard-earned dollars.

And the farmers are showing the same good sense they exercised last year by holding.

POLITICAL HISTORY.

Many papers are now declaring that political history is making now, because at a few elections in an off year, when there may be a governor or a mayor or two in different States to be elected, that the Democrat and Reform party have been successful. If the same thing hadn't happened many times before there might be some occasion for hope for the future, but the same thing has been too often heard before.

The recent elections have shown that the people are opposed to bossism, a sentiment that has been manifested time and again. The victories will be enjoyed by some of those who have been elected, and we will hear the cry that "the bosses must go," the same as we did about confidence being restored, but it will only be a confidence game, and the bosses who have been squelched for the time being will start new plans to working, and when the Presidential year arrives there will be another solid phalanx of the g. o. p. to march to the front unless the Democratic party unites on a platform on which the people can stand and a man is secured from out of the West to lead the hosts.

The Republican leaders will join in with the crowd and yell "stop thief" as heartily as any one in the land, but when the excitement of the little two-by-four off-year victory has died out, they will be up and ready for the great contest with all their past deeds buried and never once think of anything but the election of their candidates.

What Roosevelt has said will be forgotten by the next campaign, and what he has tried to do will be of no avail.

The President says his order to the Cabinet not to talk to the reporters was not to prevent their giving out news, but to prevent their talking about frivolous matters. This may satisfy the reporters, but how will the Cabinet members like it?

Deaf mutes are said to be more expert in the manufacture of telephone machinery than men with ordinary faculties. There are times when one is led to believe that they are employed as operators in the "Central."

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

SUNSTROKES.

It will be for the best interests of the State Fair if the prize offered to the handiwork editor in the State is withdrawn, for they are such a concealed lot that those who get left will be so mad they won't speak a word in its favor.

It is said that when Bro. J. M. Caldwell was writing his article, "A Ordeal and Unjust Law," he had an alligator engaged for half a day to shed tears to put between the lines.

There will be big gains in the Sunday schools from now on until about December 25th, after which there will be a slump in attendance.

The envoy of the King of Abyssinia was in New York during the recent election, and he left in disgust, declaring that all the people of that city were crazy.

There is surely one Angel we know of that is a man every inch of him, and he is president of the University of Michigan. And the 4,000 students of that institution are of the same opinion.

There are 4,000 women's clubs in the United States. Allowing fifty women to each club, the number of divorcees is not as large as one might expect.

Even the cranberry growers are getting onto the job, and in anticipation of Thanksgiving have sent up the price of this adjunct to turkey to $11 a barrel.

TEXAS COTTON.

From Temple, Texas, comes the statement that there is quite a contrast in the movement of the cotton crop for this year and last. While the prices have remained about ten cents this year, all available cars have been called into use to handle the movement of cotton coastwise and while this has been done and especial efforts made to release cars promptly, there has been barely enough cars to accommodate the demand. Last year it was quite different. Cars were always on hand, empty, and the cotton crop moved tediously and slowly. Now full trains of cotton move, where last year it went in earload lots.

Now special trains are run to handle nothing whatever but cotton, and they are cotton specials and make the time allotted to a passenger schedule. The difference in the two seasons is accounted for by the difference in prices for cotton during the two years and the disposition of farmers to hold cotton until it can be sold like something for ten cents a pound.

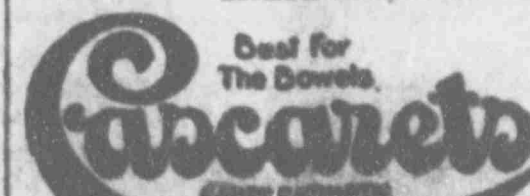

FINE CATTLE.

The display of fine cattle from the Spring Park Stock Farm on the streets Monday is an evidence of what can be done in Florida, if pure-bred stock is used as the foundation of stock raising. The cattle from this farm are not only well-bred, but they show an individuality that is convincing to all judges of cattle. Pedigree in a scrub animal is no better than the common breed of range cattle.

There is always room for improvement in cattle for the dairy as well as beef, and the truth is that there must be a more rigid selection of breeding animals. Only the fittest should be sent out to perpetuate their kind, and the unfit never, no matter how blue their blood.

Biliousness

"I have used your valuable Cascarets and find them perfect. My child's biliousness has been cured. I have used them for some time for indigestion and biliousness and am now completely cured. Recommend them to everyone. Once tried, you will never be without them in the family." Edward A. Hart, Albany, N. Y.
